

Stephanie Speroff Cullen

I started my career at Farmers Insurance in May 2005 and currently filling the role as a Project Manager for Strategic Execution and Change Management.

I am a graduate of Grand Valley State University where I earned my Bachelor's degree in Marketing and Management. My husband and I spend our leisure time outdoors with our daughter Calista (4) and identical twin boys; Theo and Archer (9 months) along with our dog Kaylee. When we aren't outside, we enjoy using our PTO to travel the world exploring new cultures and cuisine.

Sungjin Yoo

I was born in Seoul, South Korea but moved to Grand Rapids when I was in elementary school, as my dad was starting his studies at Calvin Theological Seminary. As a result of my dad's studies and later job as a pastor, I spent my childhood and adolescence in Grand Rapids, Charlottesville, Virginia and Seoul. I attended Calvin College, where I majored in Classics, International Relations and German and had the opportunity to study in Vienna, Austria for a semester. After college, I attended law school at Washington University in St. Louis and spent a semester in Hamburg, Germany. While I have lived in several places, Grand Rapids is my home so after law school, I took a job at the law firm of Honigman, where I focused on corporate law and M&A transactions for a few years. At the beginning of this year, I started a position as in-house counsel at Ottawa Avenue

Private Capital. When I am not working, my wife and I enjoy spending time with our 3-month old, travelling, trying new foods and going on walks.

Allyson Mills

Ally is the Healthcare Industry Council Lead at West Michigan Works!. She comes from a nonprofit background and has five years of experience in varying causes. She also has experience in health care administration and is passionate about furthering health care equity through professional development. She attended Aquinas College for her bachelor's degree in community leadership. Ally loves to stay active in the community, serving in various board and volunteer roles. Outside of work Ally is an old soul – enjoying crocheting, puzzling and cuddling her dog. She also likes to stay active with family and friends exploring all things West Michigan.

Daniel Lopez

Daniel was born in Guatemala and raised in Grand Rapids, Michigan. He is currently a Congressional Hispanic Caucus Institute Public Policy Fellow in the office of Congressman Joe Neguse with portfolios in immigration, education and health policies. He holds a B.A in Sociology from the University of Michigan and an A.A from GRCC. He is committed to making an impact in his community through education, public policy, and coalition building.

Andy McLean

Andy McLean grew up in the Metro Detroit area, and has called West Michigan home for the last nine years. His love and appreciation for West Michigan was formed two decades ago as he and his parents visited the beautiful beaches and lakeshore towns every summer. Later, the splendor of Grand Valley State University attracted Andy to the area for his undergraduate program. The culture he discovered in West Michigan made it evident that it was his new home.

After graduating from Grand Valley State University with his Bachelor of Business Administration, Andy began his career as a Materials Planner and Scheduler. Through volunteerism and job shadow, he realized a passion for healthcare and helping patients. After obtaining his Master of Business Administration from Northwood

University, Andy joined BAMF Health (Bold Advanced Medical Future) as Business Development Manager in 2019. BAMF Health is working to achieve AI-enabled intelligence-based precision medicine through molecular imaging and Theranostics.

Andy spends his weekends hiking the lakeshore with his rescue dog June, and checking out the region's most exciting restaurants in the evening. He also loves cooking and working on projects around the house. He is enthusiastic about helping others, and is especially excited to join the Metro Health impACT Board to continue to strengthen this passion.

Sara Dixon

As an Ohio transplant living in Grand Rapids, Sara is eager to make a positive impact in the city she now calls home. She is passionate about connecting with the West Michigan community and improving the well-being of residents in the region. Sara works as an Executive and Internal Communications Specialist at Amway. Between cups of coffee, you can find her on her yoga mat or exploring the great outdoors.

Brandon Faber

I was born and raised in Byron Center, MI not too far from Metro Health on Byron Center Avenue. My wife Laura and I have been married since August of 2018 and we have a son, Henry who is 13 months and our second son, William is due to be born in late July of 2020. Laura is a teacher turned stay at home mom while I have gone from diesel mechanic to car salesman to Realtor in the past couple of years. One of my continuous goals in life is making a difference in the community by sharing my time and energy and lessons I've had to learn along the way.